Pandemic Protocols

- Please keep your mask on. You may remove it briefly to consume the communion bread and wine. Sanitize your hands before and after communion. Thank you.
- Congregational singing is now permitted behind your mask.
- Washrooms are open for one person/household at a time.
- We are not offering Sunday School at this time.
- Please adhere to physical distancing of 2 metres as you leave the church and maintain distancing in the parking lot also.

Thank you and be safe

We continue to operate under pandemic capacity limits.
Registration for in-person worship is appreciated but not necessary
as our numbers tend to be low the summer

RELIGIOUS HERITAGE DAYS, Sept 11, 12

Religious Heritage Days, an annual event, aims to open the doors to religious heritage buildings from different periods of construction, allowing people to get to know and appreciate them. We will be participating in this event along with St Stephens, La Fab, the Historical Society, and Grace United to show case our building, history and ministries. For more information connect with Carol or Mary T. Check out: <https://www.patrimoine-religieux.qc.ca/en/events/religious-heritage-days>

LEANING ON THE EVERLASTING ARMS

What a fellowship, what a joy divine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

*Leaning, leaning,
Safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.*

O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
O how bright the path grows from day to day,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

What have I to dread, what have I to fear,
Leaning on the everlasting arms?
I have blessed peace with my Lord so near,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.
